

Maloy Ministry Moments

June 2025

The bronchitis that assailed his lungs left Shokrat unable to work to provide for his wife & three children. The assistance they received from the government wasn't enough to support their family. We placed the food package on their table and asked if we could pray for Shokrat's recovery. With his consent, we laid hands on him, prayed, and then left.

We returned a month later but found that Shokrat wasn't home. His wife greeted us with a radiant smile. She shared that Shokrat had experienced a swift recovery after our prayer and was now back to work again! At our third visit, the whole family was home and overjoyed to see us. Shokrat led me to his backyard and found the words to communicate something very personal... that he had accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior!

"When you share the Gospel," he said, "I understand God is with you. My health became fixed so that now I can provide for my family. God's blessing has come to this house. Would you teach me how to pray to God with you?"

Shokrat continued to share more of the difference he experienced after receiving Jesus. He recounted a time when, feeling healthy, he visited a house and encountered a newly painted room. He opened the door and went inside. Before, he couldn't even breathe in this kind of room. And then he said, "in Jesus' name" and entered it. There was nothing. Nothing happened. He even started working as a painter, like he had never experienced chronic, severe breathing difficulty!

Sometimes, spiritual movements start with a box of food and a faithful prayer. How amazing that this Cru partner could help this family get back on their feet and get connected to a supporting church community. We're so thankful that salvation has come to this home, and eager to see how it spreads to other homes in this community, with Shokrat and his family actively participating in a home group and growing quickly in their faith!

Prayer Requests:

Something incredible is happening in Shokrat's region; many are coming to Christ! Pray for God's protection over this area.
